

Sumo Says.....

Candy???

Do I smell candy?

So one time I eat a bag of Reese's candy bars, and they still haven't forgiven me. It was like 2 years ago and I was dressed like a ballerina. What did they expect? At least this year they got me a studly Punk Rocker costumer!

Just Arrived

We just got more inventory of the Good Earth Soap products and they are amazing! You need to check out the fabulous scented soaps and candles before they are all gone. (Sorry, but I just got the last Pumpkin Spice).

The lip balm is my family's favorite.

What started as an organic chemistry project has turned into a booming business for a fellow local business owner.

We are proud to announce the birth of yet another new Crystal Coffee sibling....
"The Cup of Troy" has recently opened at Southwest High School with the help of Micki Volk and the business students there. They will join the family with "Kwik Sip" which is the student run coffee shop Notre Dame High School started last year. Both of these businesses are being guided by the sisters at Crystal Coffee who are thrilled to support the students and schools in our area.

The next time you're in one of those schools, stop by and check it out!

Watch for NEW travel mugs and NEW coffee cups to be coming this month!

They are "big girl" coffee mugs which means breakable.

(Which also means Erin can't tape the handles back on when she drops them)!

Catering orders have been flying out the doors at Crystal Coffee, so keep us in mind for your office lunches, breakfast meetings, or when you just don't feel like cooking for your family.

Mom and Dad leave for Florida this week, so make sure you say good bye the next time you see them. Beth is suffering from depression already knowing mom won't be there on Monday's to help her in the kitchen.
